L'AUTO-DA-FE.

In the hush of the winter midnight—
In the hush of the sleeping house
When no wierd wind stirs in the gloomy firs
The spirits of storm to rouse.

When never a glint of moonlight
Gleams from a great black sky,
By the red fire's glow, as it smoulders low,
We crouch, my letters and I.

My letters, they lie where I tossed them,
On the crimson hearth-rug there,
Still vivid and bright, in the ruddy light,
As cobras in their lair.

I push the hair from my forehead,
That burns and throbs so fast,
Thinking the while, with a strange dull smile,
Of the task I must do at last.

Who knows but I, the comfort
Those foolish letters have been?
The depth and scope—the strength and hope—
Of those "leaves" that are always "green?"

Who knows but I, how sadly,
To-morrow, I and my dream,
By the ashes gray will weep and say,
"Woe's me for that vanished gleam."

"The gleam of idle gladness,
The glimmer of memories bright,
That hid in each line of those letters of mine,
Those letters I burn to-night?"

Ah, well! the dream was a folly;
Its joy was an idle thing,
Its hope was a lie, and its loyalty
Died of a whisper's sting.

So a kiss—the last—to my letters,
A resolute hand and—there!
Do the sad dark eyes of my Paradise
Meet mine through the fierce flame's flare?

—Temple Bar.

DEATH AT THE BREAKFAST TABLE.—Robert Bruce, a celebrated Scotch minister, sat at his breakfast table one morning. Having eaten a boild egg, he turned to his daughter and said:

"I think I am yet hungry, you may bring me another egg."

He then grew thoughtful a moment, and, musing a little, added—

"Hold, daughter, hold! my Master calleth me."

Here his sight failed him, but calling for a Bible he requested his daughter to place his finger on Romans 9, 38, 39.—This being done he repeated the verse, dwelling especially on "I am persuaded that neither life nor death shall be able to separate me from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus my Lord."—He then said:

"God be with you, my children. I have breakfasted with you, and shall sup with my Lord Jesus this night."

These were his last words, for, without a shiver or a groan, he at once started on his flight to everlasting glory.

Reader, you breakfasted with your family circle this morning. Suppose, like the good Mr. Bruce, you should die suddenly to day, with whom would you sup to-night?

MEN AND WOMEN.—Men love things—as facts, possessions, and estates; and women, persons; and while a man regards only abstract scientific facts; a woman looks only at the person in whom they are embodied. Even in childhood the little girl loves an imitation of humanity—her doll—and works for it; the boy gets a hobby horse or tools, and works with them. But the noblest quality wherewith nature has endowed woman for the good of the world is love—that love which seeks no sympathy and no return. The child is the object of love, kisses and watching, and answers them only by complaint and anger; and the feeble creature that requires the most repays the least. But the mother goes on; her love only grows stronger the greater the need and the unthankfulness of its object; and while fathers prefer the strongest of their children, the mother feels more love for the feeble and garrulous.

"THERE's our Jeremiah," said Mr. S., "he went off to get his living by his wits." "Well, did he succeed?" inquired his friend. "No," said the old man tapping his forehead, "he failed for want of capital."

"IT IS a shame, husband, that I have to sit here mending your old clothes!" "Don't say a word about it wife; the least said, the sooner mended."

[From the La Crosse Democrat.]

DESCRIPTION OF THE GAME OF BASE BALL.

Eureka!

Look at that brace of hands, once soft and pretty, now suffused with Egyptian blushes. Then look into those optics and tell us tales of sympathy. And look at that Mount Tom on our right cheek-bone. Base ball! That is the row.

It came about thus. Sedentary employment is too irksome for the system. The Doctor said we needed exercise. Doctor knows. He told us to join base ball; we joined. Bought a book of instructions, and for five days studied it wisely, if not too well. Then we bought a sugar scoop cap, a red belt, a green shirt, yellow trousers, pumpkin colored shoes, a paper collar, and purple neck-tie, and, with a lot of other delegates, moved gently to the ground.

There were two nines. These nines were antagonists. The ball is a pretty little drop of softness, the size of a goose egg, and five degrees harder than a brick. The two nines play against each other. It is a quiet game, much like chess, only a little more chase than chess.

There was an umpire. His position is a hard one. He sits on a box, and yells "fowl."

I took the bat. It is a murderous plaything, descended from Pocahontas to the head of John Smith. The man in front of me was a pitcher. He was a nice pitcher, but he sent the balls hot. The man behind was a pitcher. He caught it, too!

The umpire said "play." It is the most radical play I know of, this base ball. Sawing cord wood is moonlight rambles beside base ball. So the pitcher sent a ball toward me. It looked pretty coming; so I let it come. Then he sent another. I hit it with the club, and hove it gently upward. Then I started to walk to the first base. The ball lit in the pitcher, or his hands, and somebody said he caught a fly. Alas, poor fly! I walked leisurely toward the base. Another man took the bat I turned to see how he was making it, and a mule kicked me on the cheek. The man said it was the ball. It felt like a mule, and I reposed on the grass. The ball went on!

Pretty soon there were two more flies, and three of us flew out. Then the other nine came in, and us nine went out. This was better. Just as I was standing on my dignity in the left field, a hot ball, as they called it, came skyrocketing toward me. My captain yelled, "Take it!"

I hastened gently forward to where the ball was aiming to descend. I have a good eye to measure distance, and saw at a glance where the ærolite was to light. I put up my hands. How sweetly the ball descended. Everybody looked—I felt something warm in my eye! "Muffin!" yelled ninety fellers. "'Muffin' be d——d! It's a cannon ball!" For three days I've had two pounds of raw beef on that eye, and yet it paineth!

Then I wanted to go home, but my gentle captain said "nay." So I nayed and stayed. Pretty soon it was my strike. "Brick to bat!" yelled the umpire. I went, but not all serene, as was my wont. The pitcher sent in one hip high. I missed it. He sent in another neck high. It struck me in the gullet. "Fowl," yelled the umpire. He sent in the ball again. This time I took it square and sent it down the right field, through a parlor window—a kerosene lamp, and rip up against the head of an infant who was quietly taking its—nap in his or its mother's arms.—Then I slung the bat and meandered forth to the first base. I heard high words and looked. When I slung the bat I had with it broken the jaw of the umpire, and was fined ten cents.

The game went on. I liked it. It is so much fun to run from base to base just in time to be put out, or to chase a ball three-fourths of a mile down hill while all the spectators yell "muffin!" "go it!" "home run!" "go round again!" or "go round a dozen times!" Base ball is a sweet little game. When it came my turn to bat again, I noticed everybody moved back about ten rods! The new umpire retreated twelve rods. He was timid! The pitcher sent 'em in hot. Hot balls in time of war are good. But I don't like 'em too hot for fun. After a while I got a fair clip at it, and you bet it went, cutting the daisies down the right field. A fat man and his dog sat in the shade of an oak enjoying the game. The ball broke one leg of the dog, and landed like a runaway engine in the corporosity of the fat man. He was taken home to die.

Then I went on a double-quick to the field, and tried to stop a hot ball. It came toward me from the bat at the rate of nine miles a minute. I put up my hands, the ball went sweetly singing on its way with all the skin from my palms with it.

More raw beef!

That was an eventful chap who first invented base ball. It's such fun. I've played five games, and this is the glowing result:

Twenty-seven dollars paid out for things.
One bunged eye, badly bunged.
One broken little finger.
One bump on the head.
Nineteen lame backs.
A sore jaw.
One thumb dislocated.
Three sprained ankles.
Five swelled legs.
One dislocated shoulder, from trying to throw a ball a thousand yards.
Two hands raw from trying to stop hot balls.
A lump the size of a hornet's nest on my left hip, well back.
A nose sweetly jammed, and five uniforms spoiled from rolling in the dirt at the bases.

I have played two weeks, and don't think I like the game. There is not a square inch on, in, or under me but aches. I sleep nights dreaming of hot balls, "flys," "fouls," and descending "sky rockets." I never worked so hard since Ruth stole wheat, and never was so lame since the burning of Luther.

But I am proud of my proficiency in the game. It's fine exercise—a little easier than being run through a threshing machine, and not much either. It's a nice game for a poet or orator—'twill make one sore beyond all accounts.

I've looked over the scorer's book, and find that in two weeks I've broken seven bats, made one tally, broken one umpire's jaw, broken ten windows in adjoining houses, killed a baby, broke the leg of a dog, and mortally injured the bread-basket of a spectator, knocked five other players out of time by slinging my bat, and knocked the water-fall from a school-marm who was standing twenty rods from the field, a quiet looker-on.

I've used up fifteen bottles of arnica liniment, five bottles of lotion, half a raw beef, and am so full of pain that it seems as if my bones were but broken bats, and my legs the limbs of a dead horse-chesnut, instead of the once elegant trotters of

Bawlingly thine,
"BRICK" POMEROY.

P. S.—All the ladies in favor of "universal suffering" are invited to join our club! B. P.

A LOGAN COUNTY QUAKER SEES "SUM DINGS."

Some months ago, a quaker widower of this country, concluded to bless himself with a second wife, chose one accordingly from a very strong "manhood suffrage locality, and took her to his home for an helpmeet. Happy! Thrice happy Quaker! The golden hours on angel's wings flew o'er him and his dearie. Fact. And they used to sit together and read the Bellefontaine Republican of Sunday evenings, and under its soporific influence, doze and nod in their chairs, and dream bright dreams of niggerhood suffrage and the Rump Congress. "Visions 'tis rapture to recall." And sometimes in those dreams they would imagine that the word "white" was stricken from the Constitution, and start from their slumbers in ecstacies of joy. And thus the pensive autumn receded before the stern breath of winter, and anon the spring time came, "gentle Annie," and with it hyacinths, and bird carols, and into the household of our Quaker—A NIGGER BABY, a baby with the word white stricken out! That's so! that's what's the matter! Whether the Quaker thinks more of it, or not quite so much, as if it were of his own body, is not known at this writing. We have sent him the touching narrative of Hill Flicker Snicker, by Brick Pomeroy, so that if he is disposed to be unhappy over his domestic arrangements, he can sing, "dat dam old Stone wall Jackson song, who's pin here since I'se been gone?" or, who's pin here before I came? as the case may be.—Let this little nigger be christened Jay. Quay Campbell, and the eternal fitness of things, all round, will have been appropriately preserved. Roll on the ball! The negro wears the palm!—Bellefontaine Gazette.

CAGED HIS KEEPER.—The Milwaukee Wisconsin furnishes another instance of the outwitting of a sane man by a crazy man. It says?

Recently a Milwaukee police officer was detailed to take an insane man to an asylum. The man went along quietly until the end of the journey was reached, and instead of being delivered to the officers of the asylum, very quietly delivered the astonished officer who before he had an opportunity for an explanation, found himself locked up in a cell, and was told that a straight jacket awaited him if he made any demonstrations. The insane man went away, having done his work in a very systematic manner, and was very soon after boasting of what he had done. The officer, as soon as he could get the manager of the asylum to listen to him made an explanation and sent for an acquaintance, who very soon set matters to rights. Search was made for the insane man, and he was found detailing his exploits, and very soon taken care of. The officer thinks he will look a little sharper next time.

FACTS ABOUT LIFE.—The total number of human beings on the earth is computed at 3,000,000,000, and they speak 3063 known tongues.

The average duration of life is estimated at 33½ years.

One fourth of those born die before they are 7 years old, and one half at the age of 17.

Out of one hnndred persons only six reached the age of 60.

Sixty persons die every minute.

Tall people live longer than short ones.

At a recent railroad celebration the following sentiment was given: "Our mothers the only faithful tenders who never misplaced a switch.

A TOUCHING PASSAGE.

How eloquently does Chateaubriand reply to the inquiry, "Is there a God?": "There is a God! The herbs of the valley, the cedars of the mountain bless Him; the insects sport in His beams; the elephant salutes Him with the rising orb of day; the thunder proclaims Him in the Heavens; the ocean declares His immensity; man alone has said, 'there is no God!' Unite in thought at the same instant the most beautiful objects in nature; suppose that you see at once all the hours of the day and all the seasons of the year; a morning of spring and a morning of autumn; a night bespangled with stars and a night covered with clouds; meadows enameled with flowers and hoary with snow; fields gilded by tints of autumn; then alone you will have a just conception of the universe. While you are gazing upon that sun which is plunging under the vault of the West, another observer admires him emerging from the gilded gates of the East. By what inconceivable magic does that aged star which is sinking fatigued and burning in the shade of the evening, re-appear at the same instant, fresh and humid with the rosy dews of morning! At every instant of the day the glorious orb is at once rising, resplendent at noon-day, and setting in the West; or rather our senses deceive us, and there is, properly speaking, no East, West, North or South in the world. Every thing reduces itself to a single point, from whence the King of Day sends fourth at once a triple light in one substance. The bright splendor is perhaps that which nature can present that is most beautiful, for while it gives us an idea of the perpetual magnificence and resistless power of God, it exhibits at the same time a shining image of the glorious Trinity."

THRILLING ENCOUNTER.—We learn from the last Boonsboro' Odd Fellow, that Prof. J. Mitchell, known as the "South Mountain Wizard," had a thrilling adventure with a den of snakes on the 7th ult. The Professor was out gunning when he suddenly came in contact with a snake, which he encountered, and was met by his snakeship in a defiant manner. On the second attempt to injure his enemy, the Professor succeeded in dealing a mortal wound.—No sooner had he thus despatched the first than a second made his appearance, coming directly at him, with head erect, above five feet from the ground, and his forked tongue extended to its fullest length. The Professor dispatched this one with a ball from his carbine. A third one instantly came to the rescue, and halted within a few feet of the Professor, who discharged his carbine, without effect, whereupon the monster (measuring about eleven feet) closed upon his adversary, and wound his slimy folds about his person. The Professor was at that moment staring death and the snake in the face, and it was considerable time before he could command the presence of mind to draw his hunting knife, and sever the snake in two. After this was done, not caring to continue the battle, he beat precipitate retreat, leaving the snakes, which were advancing from all sides in countless numbers, to vent their spleen unmolested, and mourn the loss of three of their number, who had met an untimely death.

AN "Alabamian," in a Mobile paper, who has been in Boston, thus hits off the prohibitory law: "Boston seems to be growing worse every day in intolerance. They won't allow a circus to have a horizontal bar, or a band of 'tumblers.' 'Trance mediums' are forbidden to practice because they call in the aid of spirits, 'Opticians' are watched, because it is said people get their glasses there. The London 'Punch' and 'Wilkes' Spirits' are forbidden to be sold by the periodical dealers. Apothecaries are forbidden to sell liquorice.—People are not allowed to eat sour apples, and are liable to be arrested for being in high spirits. Children who complain of stomach ache are locked up for fear it might be shampaign. Men are arrested on suspicion of being distillers who are caught 'rectifying mistakes.' Hotels have had to take 'rum omelets' and 'wine sauce' off their bills of fare. All bookstores selling histories containing an account of the 'Battle of Brandywine' are closed at once. Dead people cannot be buried on a bier. Vessels are not to come into a harbor, because they have to pass a bar in doing so; and sea captains are not allowed to make any 'port in storm'—if they do, they must tell where they got it. Enterprising men dare not show any public spirit;—and even poor washer-women can only dry two sheets at a time, as any one is liable to arrest who has 'three sheets in the wind.'"

A LADY asked a gentleman the other day, why so many tall gentlemen were bachelors? The reply was that they were obliged to lie crosswise in bed to keep their feet in, and that a wife would be in the way.

AN active officer who recently arrested a savage blow has since further distinguished himself stopping a flying report and catching a violent cold.

AN Irish absentee is said to have sent this comforting message to his steward:—"tell the tenants that no threats to shoot you will terrify me."

A HUSBAND on being told the other evening that his wife had lost her temper, said he was glad of it, for it was a very bad one.

ABOLITIONISTS.

The word "Abolitionist" is derived from the transitive verb abolish, which Webster defines as follows: "Abolish—1. To make void; to annul; to abrogate; applied chiefly and appropriately to established laws, contracts, rites, customs, and institutions. 1. To destroy." Now let us see what our Abolitionists have abolished, destroyed, annulled and made void:

They have abolished liberty.
They have abolished the Union.
They have abolished the Constitution.
They have abolished trial by jury.
They have abolished the laws and the courts.
They have abolished ten States.
They have abolished a Republican form of government.
They have abolished the peace and fraternity of the country.
They have abolished all respect for a written Constitution.
They have abolished the sacredness of the church.
They have abolished the freedom of speech.
They have abolished the freedom of the press.
They have abolished the freedom of opinion.
They have abolished all that the late war was waged for.
They have abolished all that our forefathers fought for.
They have abolished gold and silver.
They have abolished equal rights to all.
They have abolished equal taxation.
They have abolished economy and honesty in the administration of the government.
They have abolished low prices, cheap living, good times and the general prosperity.
They have abolished the cotton crop, and the millions of gold resulting from our exports.
They have abolished a million of lives.
They have abolished from three to six thousand million of treasure.
They have abolished our southern market.
They have abolished our commerce upon the seas.
They have abolished our independence of Eastern manufactures and iron mongers.
They have abolished representation as a corrollary of taxation.
They have abolished the United States Senate.
They have abolished the United States House of Representatives.
They have abolished the United States.

With such a record and such achievments only to boast of what more appropriate name could they bear than that of "Abolitionists?"

A DOUBLE SATIRE.—The annexed has a sufficiently wide application to be appreciated by the married people of either sex:

Traveling Husband.—Scene 1st. Room in hotel. Spittoons full of cigar stumps. Bourbon whisky. Husband in a hurry to be off, writing home:

DEAREST SUSIE.—My time is so occupied with business that I can hardly spare a moment to write to you. Oh, darling, how I miss you and the only thing that sus ains me during my absence is the thought that every moment thus spent is for the benefit of my dear wife and children. Take good care of yourself, my dear. Feed the baby on our cow's milk. Excuse haste, etc.

DEAR HUBBY: How lonesome I am in your absence. The hours pass tediously. Nobody calls on me, and I am only constantly thinking of the time when you will be home, and your cheerful countenance light up the now dreary routine of every day life. My household duties keep me constantly employed. I am living as economically as possible, knowing that your small income will not admit of frivolous expenses. But, now, dear, I will say good by, or I will be too late for the monthly concert of prayer. In haste, yours, etc.

PRESERVING POTATOES.—A correspondent of the Scientific American says that he has tried the following method of keeping potatoes for years with complete success, though in some instances the tubers were diseased when taken out of the ground: "Dust over the floor of the bin with lime and put in about six or seven inches deep of potatoes, and dust with lime as before. Put in six or seven inches of potatoes and lime again; repeat the operation until all are stored away. One bushel of lime will do for forty bushels of potatoes, though more will not hurt them—the lime rather improving the flavor than otherwise."

SEE TO SEVEN-THIRTIES.—Every man, woman and other fellow, who may be lucky enough to own or hold United States 7 30 notes, are reminded that they have only until the 15th day of next August to present them to the Treasury Department fo. their conversion into 5-20 bonds. After that time the Department will hold that the holders of the 7-30's have elected to be paid rather than to convert the notes; and our Government will then proceed to pay off the unconverted balance. As there are many individuals interested in the financial matter who may delay giving it timely attention, they had better move in it at once, and thereby secure the advantage which the Government still holds out to them.

LIVE so as to be prepared for a short life and you may ornament many years hapily.

RIP VAN WINKLE AWAKES!

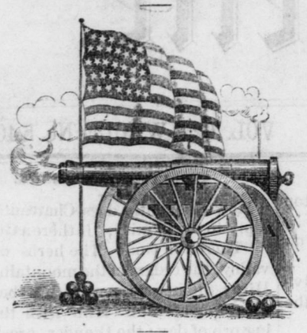
Fr. Jordan—the Hon. Francis Jordan, Secretary of the Commonwealth and Chairman of the Radical B. H. State Committee—has issued an address to the people of Pennsylvania, directing them how to vote at the approaching Judicial election. Jordan is the Rip Van Winkle of Pennsylvania politics. He started out hunting (that is, office-hunting) one bright morning some twenty years ago, with all kinds of ammunition for the rusty old firelock with which he calculated to bring down Democratic chickens, and fell asleep on the dunghill of Abolitionism whist waiting to get a pop at the old cock that was wont to crow so lustily from the GAZETTE office. He has been asleep ever since and just now awakes to the fact that every thing is changed about him. His rusty old gun has fallen to pieces, his shot-pouch contains some old ammunition, much spoiled by age and exposure to the weather, his coat, turn it as he will, does not keep out the wind, which, in its Democratic way—aequo pulsat pede—strikes all with equal force. He is wonder-stricken, yet unlike his great prototype, he does not seek to unravel the mystery which surrounds him, but ties together the parts of his crazy fowling-piece, loads it with his antiquated and weather-spoiled ammunition, and proceeds with his hunt of Democratic game. Fizz—zip—bang! goes the old blunder-buss and the dogs that slept with him on the Abolition dunghill, run in to secure the trophy of the hunter's sportsmanship. Nix kumm heraus! The ammunition was too old; it had lost its strength; the gun "burnt prime" too long; and chanticleer, at whose breast the shot was aimed, flaps his wings in triumph, and crows lustily, Vic-to-ry! Vic-to-ry! Rip Van Winkle Jordan, will, doubtless, learn, if he has not learned already, that if he is compelled to go back thirty four years to find an objection to Judge Sharswood, the people will conclude that there is no objection at all to that most excellent jurist. Just think of it! Here are Jordan and his committee, looking through the whole record of Judge Sharswood's life, scanning with eager eyes every page of it, and finding nothing until they have gone back thirty four years, and then they find him at a States Rights banquet at which toasts were given to John C. Calhoun! Isn't it wonderful! Oh, yes! they find, too, that in a certain case in Philadelphia, in which a contract had been made (about seventy years before "greenbacks" were ever thought of) that certain interest was to be paid in "Spanish milled dollars," he decided that the party who had stipulated to pay the "Spanish milled dollars," must fulfill his contract, and that he could not do so by offering to pay in "greenbacks" instead of Spanish milled dollars, and this, because the contract was a special one and made long before the passage of the "greenback" law. From these two facts, Rip Van Winkle argues that Sharswood is a Secessionist, a traitor, and everything that is naughty. But he forgets to say that Sharswood was a Whig until that party was destroyed by Abolitionism, and, therefore, must have acted with Webster and against Calhoun; and, what is still more significant, he fails to notice the fact that the "Republicans" of Philadelphia, endorsed the nomination of Judge Sharswood for President Judge of the District Court of that city, and voted for him in a body, and this too, during the midst of the late civil war. With such facts to rebut the silly charges of the political antiquary who presides over the deliberations of the Radical B. H. State Committee, the friends of Judge Sharswood can well afford to rest secure of victory. SELAH!

THE Baltimore Sun thus disposes of the Tennessee "election," so-called:

"Four fifths of the white voters of Tennessee have been disfranchised and the black men have taken their places. * * In some counties there were not as many white voters as there were offices to be filled, and in others the Governor set aside the registration where it was not agreeable to him."

Shout, O ye glorious sticklers for freedom and equality! Bellow till your throats crack! Such a triumph is worthy of such a party!

BETTER NEWS!!



Kentucky Speaks!!

Immense Majority for the Democratic Candidate for Governor!

The glorious old State of Kentucky held her election for Governor and Members of the Legislature, on Monday last. Hon. John L. Helm, Democrat, was elected Governor by an immense majority, estimated as high as 60,000! The Legislature is almost unanimously Democratic. Following immediately upon the heels of the Tennessee diabolism, this result may be taken as an expression of the indignation felt by the neighbors of the outraged citizens of that State, in regard to the Brownlow usurpation. Here is the difference: Kentucky is governed by white men, Tennessee is ruled by Negroes; Kentucky goes largely Democratic, Tennessee B. H. Radical. Glorious Kentucky! Poor Tennessee!

GREAT RADICAL VICTORY!

The Niggers Carry Tennessee!

Beelzebub Brownlow's Bayonets Triumphant.

One Hundred and Twenty Five Thousand White Men Disfranchised!

Glorious Specimen of Radical Reconstruction.

Shout, O ye miserable Radicals! Sound the hew-gag! Bang the banjo! Ring the cow-bells! The cloven-foot of Beelzebub Brownlow is again on the necks of the white slaves of Tennessee! As Louis Napoleon "elected" himself Emperor of France, so Brownlow has made himself King of Tennessee. Bayonets in the hands of Negroes, have enabled him to convert his ill-gotten power into a permanent and unlimited despotism. Only 50,000 of the 175,000 white voters of the State, were permitted to be "registered", whilst 57,000 negro voters were put upon the rolls. Brownlow's "majority" is less than the Negro vote, showing that the blacks, controlled by bayonets and corruption, are the ruling power in Tennessee. Of course, this was a foregone conclusion. Radical reconstruction must end in the complete Africanization of every State in which it succeeds. Let those rejoice, who can, over such a result. The man who takes pleasure in such a prospect must have a heart as black as the skin of Brownlow's janissaries. Such a man is a traitor to his race, to his country and to his God.

"THE OLD FLAG'S BACK IN TENNESSEE!"

We find an article on Brownlow's coup d'etat in Tennessee, in a recent number of the Philadelphia Press, under the above caption. The "old flag!" The flag which protected negro slavery in Tennessee, the flag for which Jeff. Davis fought in Mexico, the flag which Massachusetts refused to defend against the British in 1812, is that "old flag" back in Tennessee? Nay, is that "old flag" which has thirty-seven stars upon its field, emblematic of thirty-seven free and equal States, back in Tennessee? Alas! no! There is a new flag floating in Tennessee, a flag under whose baleful shadow the tree of liberty bears no fruit, the black flag of Negro supremacy, upheld by the Swiss guards of that worst of Gesslers, the brutal, beastly blackguard Brownlow. Talk about "the old flag!" The editor of the Press must imagine his readers to be great fools, indeed, if he expects them to believe that Brownlow ran as a supporter of the "old flag." His banner is black as night, and the skull-and-cross bones of Death constitute its only emblem. Under such a flag, Old Beelzebub will some day marshall the supporters of such men as Brownlow, and march them to that nethermost hell, which hot as it may be, ought to be seven times heated, to be a fit receptacle for such ice-hearted traitors to their race and to their country.

TRAITORS!

The Radical B. H's are just now rejoicing over the Negro triumph in Tennessee. They rejoice that 125,000 white men are disfranchised, reduced to slavery, whilst 57,000 Negroes are made free and rulers of the State. Republicans! do you share the fiendish malignity of these Radical demons in human shape, who thus would degrade and destroy your own color and blood? It cannot be! The men who glory in the enslavement of white people through the political elevation of the blacks, are traitors to their race, to their country and to their God! Traitors to their race, because they crush out the political privileges of the whites, whilst they enfranchise the blacks; traitors to their country, because they know that the African race is not capable of self-government and their supremacy in a large portion of this country will prove its destruction; traitors to their God, because the Creator formed the Negro the intellectual inferior of the White Man, and, therefore, God's purpose is violated in forcing equality between the two. Who would be a traitor to his race?

NOTHING SURPRISING.

Some of the Radical journals seem to be greatly dissatisfied with the address recently issued by Mr. Jordan, chairman of their State Committee. They are disgusted with the stale cry of "Secession" set up by him as an argument against Judge Sharswood, and regard the whole address as a kind of pitiful twaddle which can result only in injury to their own candidate.

The character of Mr. Jordan's address, does not astonish us a whit. We became acquainted with his style, years ago, when he was wont to issue his pronunciamentos to the faithful in this county. Did the Radical editors who complain of his crudities know the man, they would be willing to forgive him. As a matter of news we give the following opinions of Radical newspapers, in regard to Mr. Jordan's address:

From the N. Y. Tribune.

We cannot endorse the address of the Republican State Committee, in which Judge Sharswood is attacked with more zeal than discretion. He is denounced as the orator of a States rights celebration held in the dark ages of 1834, as if an act of 30 years ago could have vital meaning now. The very toasts offered by others at the dinner in 1834 are quoted to show that Judge Sharswood is not fit for the office of Chief Justice, and the editorials of obscure Democratic papers are copied in capital letters, as proof of his sympathy with the rebellion. The case of Borie against Trott, in which Judge Sharswood decided against the constitutional power of Congress to make paper money, is also advanced as an argument against his election—a purely legal decision, which whether right or wrong, was made solely upon Judge Sharswood's understanding of the law.

We submit that this is not the way in which Pennsylvania should elect her chief judicial officers. Such a canvass should be conducted on the highest ground possible in party rivalry, and especial care should be taken not to drag in the dirt the ermine of justice. The formal decisions of eminent judges upon points of law ought not to be bandied about in appeals to popular passion. The purity and honor of the judiciary are more than a party triumph. If the decisions of a court are to be the subject of party strife and debated in stump speeches, we may bid farewell to an independent and fearless judiciary. Hold the judge accountable to a political party for his construction of the law, and we inevitably tempt him to sacrifice his integrity; to become that meanest of all creatures—a sworn minister of justice, obedient to the dictate of politicians. It is precisely this tendency which we fear the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania unconsciously encourage, and we would bid them take warning by the wretched and degraded reputation of the judiciary of this city, in which the courts have become the mere tools of political clubs.

From the Pittsburg Chronicle.

It is insulting to the intelligence of the people of Pennsylvania to say that in this judicial contest the Democratic party has secession inscribed on its banner. We warmly support Judge Williams in this contest, but we will not even by silence, lend our indorsement to so utterly shameful and unwarranted a charge as the one above quoted. It is a sign of bad party demoralization when such means are adopted to achieve success. It is utterly wrong and utterly unnecessary. Such things recoil against the men who practice them, and cloud even an honest cause with suspicion. Whatever may have been the views of Judge Sharswood thirty-three years ago, it is both absurd and criminal to say that the right of secession will be an issue in the approaching election. The Republican party can go into a canvass upon its own merits and upon actual issues, without compromising itself by these shabby devices, and we trust no respectable journal in the party will lend itself to such a style of warfare. It is a veritable Mexican business.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.—FIVE HUNDRED AGENTS WANTED TO SELL THE "YOUTH'S OR PEOPLE'S HISTORY OF THE WAR."—This is the only history from a Democratic stand-point, and can be relied on as truthful in every respect. No family should be without it. Also, 500 agents are wanted to sell a work entitled "Nojoque," written by Hinton Rowan Helper, author of the "Impending Crisis." This work, although written by a "Republican," and one of Mr. Lincoln's own pets, is worthy the careful perusal of every Democrat and honest "Republican." It stigmatizes the ruling majority in Congress as the "Execrable two thirds majority of the Black Congress" that ought to be despised and spurned by every genuine lover of the pure Caucasian race. The Negro equality and Negro Suffrage question is handled in an able manner by the author. Let every man in this county who is opposed to Despotism, and also the social and political equality of the white and black races, secure a copy of each of these works, at the first opportunity. With these works you will be prepared to combat successfully every argument of the White and Black Negro Party in favor of the despotic measures passed by the Black Congress, and of its negro equality doctrine. Those desiring agencies for either of the aboved named works will please call on MR. E. W. MILLER, who can be found at the Mengel House, in this place, from the 12th to the 18th of this month. Both works are meeting with very rapid sales, and no young man out of employment can do better than to secure an agency at once.

RELIGIOUS.—The Rt. Rev. Bishop Stevens, will preach at the Court House, next Sabbath morning and evening.

AT THE SPRINGS.—Gen. Geo. W. Cass, President of the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railroad, is, at present, sojourning at Bedford Springs. Judge McLanahan, of Westmoreland co., is at the Mengel House.

THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON.—Bedford is still improving. We have just had a new platform erected in front of our office. Apprehending a rush of new subscribers and a crowd of those in arrears calling to "square up," we concluded to have this done. Now, let them come. The platform will not break with them.

BASE BALL—MATCH GAME.—On Thursday last, first inst., a match game at base ball, was played by the first nine of the Resolute Base Ball Club and the first nine of the Bedford Base Ball Club, both of this place. The game was played upon the ground of the old Mineral Spring Club, in Mr. Mann's meadow, immediately North of town. Both clubs played admirably, and the contest was very close, the Resolute gaining the victory by two runs. We give the score below:

THE WASHINGTON LIBRARY COMPANY of Philadelphia, gains credit and support every day. The sales of stock surpass all expectation, and the prospect is, that the funds for the noble object will be secured even in advance of the time anticipated. The reason is obvious. The design is worthy and creditable to the patriotic hearts who are laboring to reward a too much neglected class. The funds go into responsible hands, and the public have no fears that they will be mis-directed. The plan adopted satifies the scruples of the most conscientious, and has the endorsement of eminent legal authority. It is by its distinctive features entirely removed from the taint of catch-penny schemes which have so often been the means of inposing on the public. It gives to purchasers of its stock a full equivalent for the consideration paid. All its transactions are open and above board. It has no concealments, and the reputation of the managers is such that they cannot afford to be dishonest in this transaction. Read advertisement.

BEDFORD BY GAS-LIGHT.—MORE EDITORIAL EXHALATIONS.—We gave, last week, a number of letters from newspaper men sojourning at this place, "expressive of their views" in regard to Bedford and the Springs. We now continue our extracts. The following is the opinion of Y. S. Walter, Esq., of the Delaware Republican, on "the situation" hereabouts:

BEDFORD, July 23, 1867.

Dear Republican:—On Thursday evening of last week, you will remember that shortly after the last sheet had been delivered from our Hoe press, I bid you farewell for a brief season, and in company with two of our household gods, started on a visit—which ought to be observed annually as a pilgrimage—for a few days, to near and dear relatives at this place.—Leaving the depot of the Pennsylvania Central railroad at West Philadelphia, at a quarter past eleven o'clock in the evening, in the elegant cars which the Company have provided for their passengers, we had no concern for our safety, and the next morning at seven o'clock found ourselves at Huntingdon, ready for a good breakfast, previous to taking the cars on the Huntingdon and Broad Top road. Our company consisted of quite a number of ladies and gentlemen who were on their way to Bedford Springs. The road is about forty miles in length, and runs through a broken and hilly country, passing over deep ravines and through heavy cuts. Timid passengers close their eyes while the cars pass over a portion of the trestle-work, which is in several places very high, and dangerous looking. The Company have fully provided against accidents, so far as human foresight can prevent their occurrence. The trestles have been greatly strengthened, and the bed of the road well ballasted. In short, we know of no road of the same length operated with greater care and good judgment. The cars stop at Mount Dallas, to which place the road was completed three years ago, where carriages are in waiting to receive and convey passengers to the town, which is reached in about an hour and a half. A survey has been made for a road from this point to Bedford, six miles distant, and a number of laborers are engaged in making a tunnel through a spur of Cove mountain. The road will then strike the Raystown branch of the Juniata, and will require but little grading. The whole expense ought not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars per mile. It is said that the Pennsylvania Central has agreed to build it, but from some cause the work has been delayed. If the people here were half as enterprising as those of our own county, the road would have been completed long ere this.

The town of Bedford grows slowly. There seems to be a want of energy among its capitalists for which there is no excuse. Nearly all the old land marks which were familiar to me years ago—I care not to tell how many—are familiar now as they were then.—New faces appear, but the buildings—with but few additions—the roads and conveyances, are nearly the same. The only improvements visible to us, are the foundation walls of a new Episcopal church, the corner-stone of which was laid a year ago, and the walls of a reservoir to supply the town with water. Both these improvements are at a stand still. All the public schools of the town are concentrated in a single building, which is a handsome brick edifice of sufficient capacity to accommodate all the children of the town. The glass in one end of the house shows that the scholars know how to throw stones, and the broken windows prove that the Directors are negligent of their duty.

The town boasts of two newspapers, the Gazette published by Messrs. Meyers & Mengel, and the Inquirer by Durborrow & Lutz. The politics of the former are Democratic, and those of the latter Republican, and each is an earnest supporter of the principles of the party to which they are attached.

The Mineral Springs are a mile and a half South of the town. But few improvements have been made within the last three years. It is certainly the most pleasant spot in the Union for invalids to visit. The health-giving properties of the water, the pure and wholesome air, the beautiful mountain scenery and the pleasant drives, all offer inducements to be met with but rarely at any other place in our own State, or in any other. I am not able to give an analysis of the waters, nor is it necessary to do so in order to convince those who seek health, that in this locality they should sojourn for a time, if they wish to récuperate. There are at present about two hundred visiters at the Springs, and as the height of the season is past, it is not probable the number will be augmented.

About half way to the Springs, just below the road, Messrs. Robarts and Smith have erected a large building, called the "Arandale House," for the purpose of a boarding house, for those who seek the virtues of the waters to be found here. The house will entertain two hundred persons. It is well provided with furniture from the East, of the latest pattern and style, and will rank with the best houses at any of the fashionable watering places. The establishment has just been opened, and is not yet thoroughly furnished. With liberality in its management, a disposition to accommodate, and a determination to discard all old fogyism in its conduct, it must become a popular resort, and prove a serious rival to other establishments for the reception of boarders in the neighborhood of the town.

On our arrival at the Springs, on Friday afternoon, we were gratified to meet Gov. Geary, Wayne MacVeagh, Esq., Hon. S. A. Purviance, Mr. Veach of Pittsburg, John Heistand of the Lancaster Examiner, William Watson, M. D., whose reputation as a skillful physician is well known throughout the country, and other prominent public gentlemen.

The Chalybeate Spring, a mile and a half North of Bedford, is about to become a rival to the old Mineral Spring. Mr. Chenoweth has erected a handsome boarding house at this place, and the grounds around the Spring are being improved. The waters, like those of the mineral spring are heavily charged with iron and sulphur, and are without doubt, health-giving. With proper care and attention this cannot fail to be a favorite resort for invalids, and persons who seek recreation from business.

The crops in this county, promise well. Nearly all the wheat is cut and on shock, where it will remain for a week or two, protected from the weather by a simple cap sheaf. This is a custom with the farmers here—a custom which always betokens slovenliness or want of proper knowledge of farming operations. Corn is small and almost a failure in all the low land owing to the heavy rains with which this part of the State was visited about planting time. Oats and potatoes will be abundant.

I write this hasty letter from the spot where in my youth I received the first rudiments of learning—what was once known as the "Bedford Academy." The good man under whose charge I was placed, has long since been translated to another sphere, and has left behind him many, beside myself, who will ever revere his memory, and hold in high respect his many virtues.

[As to the broken windows of the Union School House, we would just say that our borough folks concluded last spring, to elect as Director that great advocate of reform, John Cessna by name, who promised to set every thing to rights in double quick time. The people of the borough thought they had "a soft thing of it," and so they had; but it appears that under the great reformer's administration, things are even worse than formerly].

Here we have number two of "Traveler's" "Jottings by the way," as printed in the Somerset Democrat. "Traveler" has so much to say about our town and county, that we feel constrained to transfer his letter bodily to our columns. Hear him:

Bedford is neither a handsome nor a homely looking town. It is the county seat of Bedford county. The principal business street is at the northern extreme running parallel with the Juniata.—Julianna is the main cross street. Bedford has some splendid residences. It has four large Hotels and several boarding houses. The 'Mengel House' is kept by that prince of landlords, Isaac Mengel, Esq., who is the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer. The "Bedford House" is kept by Joshua J. Shoemaker, a very agreeable, polite and generous landlord. The 'Washington House' is kept by W. Dibert and the "Union House" by Valentine Steckman, Esq., a very honest man. Judging from the number of Banking houses, Stores, Groceries and Restaurants Bedford contains, it must be quite a business place.

Judge King the President Judge of this district resides here. He is spoken of as a very able and impartial Judge, but has very bad politics. O. E. Shannon, an able lawyer and an energetic Democrat, is the Prothonotary. Robert Steckman, Democrat, is Sheriff, and George Mardorff, Democrat, is the County Treasurer. E. F. Kerr, Esq., is very ably and satisfactorily performing the duties of District Attorney, and is the Democratic candidate for the same position. His opponent is M. A. Points, Esq., who a few years since was celebrated for the bitter Democratic speeches he made, but Moses is now frank enough to acknowledge that "it pays him better to be a Republican than a Democrat." Harry Fisher is the County School Superintendent, and John G. Fisher is clerk to the Commisioners. They are brothers and both Democrats from Berlin in your county. The "Bedford Gazette" is the able and fearless organ of the gallant Democracy of the county and is edited and published by Meyers & Mengel. The "Bedford Inquirer" is the organ of the Radical disunionists, and is edited and published by Durborrow & Lutz.

H. Nicodemus, Democrat, and J. W. Lingenfelter, renegade Democrat, are Justices of the Peace. Bedford has very able lawyers and eminent Physicians. This is the home of that venerable Democrat, Hon. Job Mann, who for many years served the people with distinction in various positions. Major Lawrence Talliaferro, an old and faithful officer of the army, resides here. Maj. T. is a Democrat and a good talker and can interest his hearers for hours with the history of his early campaigns.

To strangers, the finest looking and the most imposing personage seen on the street, is Col. Joseph W. Tate. He dresses very elegantly and sports one of the finest moustaches that ever adorned a face. In the humble judgment of your correspondent, Col. Tate looks like a Roman Senator. It was about Col. Tate the radicals last fall sent out the Telegraphic despatch stating that at a Democratic meeting Col. Tate said that "Scotland had her Bruce, Rome had her Brutus and America had her Booth, and that a more magnificent monument would be erected to the memory of Booth, than ever would be raised to that of Abraham Lincoln." This was sent out for electioneering purposes; and since the election both sides laugh at the silly report. The report was sent abroad to slander Col. Tate and injure the Democratic party.—The most insignificant looking personage to be seen upon the street is John Cessna, the renegade Democrat and ingrate to his former friends.

The public buildings are good. The Court House, on Julianna street, is of moderate size and pleasantly located.—The new Union School House is very large and is supposed to be the best building for that purpose in Western Pennsylvania. The cemeteries are beautiful. The New Cemetery about a mile North on the Hollidaysburg road, will be a lovely place. Dr. C. N. Hickok is displaying his fine taste in laying out the grounds and in having them properly adorned.

The Chalybeate Springs are about one mile on the Northeast of the town and are owned by Col. John Hafer. I have heard the water spoken of very highly and the place described as being very handsome. W. Chenoweth has fitted up a very large and commodious boarding house. Quite a number of persons regularly visit this celebrated summer resort.

On my way to the Bedford Mineral Springs I passed the splendid house recently erected by Robarts & Smith, called the "Arandale House." It is a large building—in length eighty-six feet, in width forty feet. The halls are large and the rooms are commodious and well ventilated. The Bedford Springs are two miles south of Bedford. I need not give your readers a description of this celebrated watering place,—indeed I could not do justice to the subject if I attempted it. The comfortable buildings can conveniently accommodate hundreds, if not thousands, of visitors. The water has more medicinal qualities, cures more diseases, and quicker, than the water of any other Springs in the United States. The Mineral springs are at the base of the mountains on the east bank of Shover's run. The Sulphur spring is near the old Anderson Mill on the west bank of Shover's run, and near the road. The large and commodious bath houses are directly east of the main hotel and in the same enclosure. The mountain is ascended by circuitous walks and on the top of it is a fine arbor. From the top of the mountain the whole valley around Bedford can be seen. The sight is peculiarly interesting and grand.—There are about two hundred visitors now at the springs. Among the notables is Governor Geary, whom Thad Stevens dubs an "unhappy failure"—and it is true, he is a miserable failure. No man was ever elected Governor of this State, who was so unfit for the position as John W. Geary.

From the Springs I travelled along the road to Comberland and stopped for a short time at Centreville, a small town in Comberland Valley township. This little village has many incidents connected with it to interest the traveller. Here it was that Hannibal died. Hannibal was the name of the largest elephant ever exhibited in this country, and it is said he ate twenty-two bushels of oats and five hundred pounds of hay, and drank seven barrels of water per day. He died in 1865. He was exhibited in Bedford the preceding day and was on the way to Cumberland when death paralyzed his monster limbs. His death is described as having been intensely exciting to the spectators. The terrible struggle he made in the throes of death were terrific beyond description. But he, the strongest and mightiest of the animal kingdom, had to yield to the mandate from on High, that all is "born to die." His remains are buried here. I am told it took eleven men one whole day to dig his grave. It is rumored that his grave has been opened and some of his ivory stolen.

Another incident is connected with the history of this vicinity:

Several years ago as the coach came lumbering along from Cumberland and below Centreville the horses became suddenly frightened and made a fearful spring forward, and the coach bounded as if it had run across a large log. The driver on looking back, saw a very large snake lying across the road. Two passengers were in the stage,—they both got out and went back with the driver and found a monster serpent, supposed to have been a boa-constrictor. The driver picked up a large stone as the snake was moving off and was about throwing it, when the head of the snake, with distended jaws and hissing tongue, rose on the inside of the fence more than ten feet above the highest rail. This so frightened the party that the stone was dropped and all three made for the coach and went to Centreville as fast as the horses could take them. The snake is supposed to have taken refuge close by in one of the holes in Evitt's Mountain. He has often been hunted, without success, but his track has frequently been seen, and in Whip's meadow the shed-skin of a monster snake has been found.

Cumberland Valley was for a long time the banner Democratic township of the County but she has now to yield the palm to the 'State of Southampton.' Southampton gives a larger Democratic majority than any other township in the County. The people of Cumberland Valley are very kind and intelligent. The Andersons, the Elairs, the Cessnas, the Boors the Masons, and others are noble democrats and upright men. Samuel Whip, the Democratic candidate for County Auditor lives in this township and he is one of "nature's noblemen." He is honest and industrious, and will be elected by a large vote.

The Democracy of Bedford are alive and will do a good work this fall. A truer, nobler, or more energetic class of Democrats never lived upon the face of the earth than the gallant and lion-hearted Democracy of Bedford county.

THE FALL TRADE.—The Philadelphia North American of Saturday last speaks thus encouragingly of the Fall trade prospects: Though at this moment wholesale business is extremely dull, and the Commercial world is enjoying its vacation, yet we find a much more cheerful feeling than we have observed for many months agone. So far as our reporter can feel the commercial pulse, there exists general gratitude for the absence of apprehended pestilence, great thanks for the plenteous crops harvested and yet to be harvested and a lively hope for and belief in the transaction of a healthy and properous trade in the coming season. Manufacturers in all the various lines have all they can do in preparation for the coming demand. In stoves and hollow-ware, furniture, leather, the textiles and iron, there is no dullness whatever. The summer holidays are likely this year to be short. There are a good many southern and western buyers now at the contiguous watering places, and we hear in some cases in which salesmen at watering places have been recalled in haste to attend to customers already on the spot.

PURE WATER.—No water ought to be drunk which is contaminated by leakage or infiltration from sewers, cesspools, or foul ditches. When possible, the water supplied in towns, or derived from surface wells, ought always to be filtered before use. A cheap filter can be made by taking a large common earthen flower-pot, plug the hole at the bottom (not too tight) with a piece of sponge, then strew the bottom of the pot with powdered charcoal one inch thick, over this put a layer of clean sand, over that again an equal quantity of coarse gravel and a few loose, small stones: now set over a jug or bottle and fill it up with water; the water which drops through the bottom will be found cleansed from its impurities and sweet to drink. This filter is admirably adapted for use at sea, being easily made and kept in order. It is said that water from a stagnant pond may be sucked through charcoal with impunity.

THE Richmond Enquirer says "the papers from all parts of the South bear the same testimony; that under the management of the demagogues and office hunters, the population of the South is arrayed race against race. A thousand maledictions will light upon the wretches who have brought about the great evil, full of sorrow to both races, and involving the destruction of the blacks.

In the contest of races, the weaker will go to the wall. The lesson of history will go for naught, if the result of a forced antagonism of races is not fatal to the colored. The Enquirer cites an instance of the growing abuse. A meeting of negroes in Mecklenburg county, for instance, lately passed a resolution that any colored person who might not vote the Radical ticket should leave the country in thirty hours.

A general system of challenging whites has been re-commenced by the political committees. Where is this to end?

GENERAL SICKLES, Commander of the Carolinas, lives in great state in Charleston. He appears on the streets on pleasant afternoons in a carriage, driving four splendid black horses with elegant silver mounted harness. He generally has his daughter beside him, and a servant in livery behind. This splendid establishment attracts the unbounded enthusiasm of the negro population, it is said. Well, if the people are willing to throw away their money for such things, it's all right. We think, however, that they will get tired of it before long.

PRINTERS' INK has made many a business man rich We ask you to try it in the columns of THE GAZETTE

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FACTS FOR THE PUBLIC,
Easily verified by examination, which we respectfully invite.

1. We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of Clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market streat to 511 Minor street, and occupied exclusively by ourselves.

2. Our building, having been constructed by us for our own exclusive occupancy, and for the business to which it is entirely devoted, unites all the conveniences and appliances which have been found necessary or desirable.

3. We have an ample cash capital, enabling us to make all purchases for cash and giving us a selection, at the most favorable prices, from the markets of the entire world. IN THIS PARTICULAR WE HAVE ADVANTAGES SHARED BY NO OTHER HOUSE IN THE TRADE. This fact is well known to the entire business community.

4. We sell our goods for cash only, which, though it restricts our business to those prepared to purchase in that way, enables us to give them such advantages as no house doing a different business can possibly offer.

5. A business experience of a quarter of a century has informed us fully of the wants of the public and of the best way to meet them.

6. We employ the best and most experienced Cutters and Workmen in making up our goods—the style, fit and make of which are unsurpassed.

7. All persons, whatever may be their physical peculiarities (unless deformed), can be accurately fitted at once from our stock, in most cases better than by goods made to order, and prices 25 to 50 per cent lower.

8. Our business is large and constantly increasing, enabling us to keep the largest, best assorted and most complete stock of Men's, Youths' and Boys' Clothing in Philadelphia, to which large daily additions are made of fresh goods, replacing those sold.

9. For reasons already enumerated, we can and do sell at prices guaranteed in all cases lower than the lowest elsewhere, or the sale cancelled and money refunded.

10. All goods when offered for sale are represented to be exactly what they are.

11. When buyers are, for any reason, dissatisfied with a purchase made, if reported within a reasonable time, we pledge ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case, and request that all such may be reported to us for adjustment.

A CARD

FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY,

Of Waltham, Mass.

This Company beg leave to inform the public that they commenced operations in 1850, and their factory now covers four acres of ground, and has cost more than a million dollars, and employs over 700 operatives. They produce 75,000 Watches a year, and make and sell not less than one half of all the watches sold in the United States.

The difference between their manufacture and the European, is briefly this: European Watches are made almost entirely by hand, and the result is of necessity a lack of that uniformity, which is indispensable to correct time-keeping. Both the eye and the hand of the most skillful operative must vary. But it is a fact that, except watches of the higher grades, European watches are the product of the cheapest labor of Switzerland, and the result is the worthless Ancres, Lepines and so called Patent Levers—which soon cost more in attempted repairs, than their original price. Common workmen, boys and women, buy the rough separate parts of these watches from various factories, polish and put them together, and take them to the nearest watch merchant, who stamps and engraves them with any name or brand that may be ordered.

HOW AMERICAN WATCHES ARE MADE.

The American Waltham Watch is made by no such uncertain process—and by no such incompetent workmen. All the Company's operations, from the reception of the raw materials to the completion of the Watch, are carried on under one roof, and under one skillful and competent direction. But the great distinguished feature of their Watches, is the fact that their several parts are all made by the finest, the most perfect and delicate machinery ever brought to the aid of human industry. Every one of the more than a hundred parts of every watch is made by a machine—that infallibly reproduces every succeeding part with the most unvarying accuracy. It was only necessary to make one perfect watch of any particular style and then to adjust the hundred machines necessary to reproduce every part of that watch, and it follows that every succeeding watch must be like it.

The Company respectfully submit their watches on their merits only. They claim to make]

A BETTER ARTICLE FOR THE MONEY

by their improved mechanical processes than can be made under the old-fashioned handicraft system. They manufacture watches of every grade, from a good, low priced, and substantial article in solid silver hunting cases, to the finest chronometer; and also ladies' watches in plain gold or the finest enameled and jeweled cases; but the indispensable requisite of all their watches is that they shall be GOOD TIME-KEEPERS. It should be remembered that except their single lowest grade named "Home Watch Company, Boston," ALL WATCHES made by them by a special certificate, and this warrantee is good at all times against the Company or its agents.

ARE FULLY WARRANTED

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP. This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians prononced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS, are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all druggists and dealers; price $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE GREATEST PAIN-RELIEVER IN THE WORLD.—Warranted superior to any other, or no pay, for the cure of Chronic Rheumatism, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Mumps, Burns, Cuts, Insect stings, Pains in the Back, Chest, and Limbs, Sprains, Old Sores, Swellings; also, to take internally for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Sea Sickness, Vomiting, and Croup. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, if used according to the directions, and never fails, as thousands can attest. It was first introduced in 1847, and now millions of bottles are annually sold. Every one who has once used it, continues to do so, and recommend it to their friends as the most valuable medicine extant. Certificates enough to fill a dozen newspapers, have been received by Dr. Tobias. His medicine, the Venetian Liniment, will do all that is stated, and more. No one will regret trying it. Those residing at a distance from a physician, will find it a reliable medicine to have on hand in case of accidents. Ask for Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment, and take no other. Price 50 cents and $1. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, N. Y. jul19w4.

"CENTURY."

We have adopted the plan of putting money in CENTURY TOBACCO to induce consumers to use it, knowing that it is only necessary for them to give it a trial to become fully satisfied of its merits, and to pronounce it THE BEST FINE CUT MADE. We will continue to offer these inducements until this fact is fully recognized.

We are making THE CENTURY from selections of the very choicest old leaf, and have devoted every care to its manufacture. It is free from Drugs, and in every respect A PURE ARTICLE OF CHEWING TOBACCO.

On Mondays we will place in one paper a $100 U. S. Note. On Tuesdays, in two papers, $50 each. On Wednesdays, in five papers, $20 in each. On Thursdays, in ten papers, $10 each On Fridays, in twenty papers, $5 in each, and on Saturdays, in fifty papers, $2 each in all cases issuing GENUINE U. S. GREENBACKS to the amount of $100 a day.

The finders of these GREENBACKS—by sending us their names, address, and numbers of the bills,—will be presented with packages of our Tobacco, in proportion to the amount of money found.

This house has been established for over a Hundred Years, and has always sustained a character for honesty and fair dealing, which puts to flight all doubts, if any should exist, as to the genuineness of this enterprise.

THE CENTURY TOBACCO can be had in large quantities at Manufacturers prices, of A. R. Mitchell, 35 Central-st, Boston; B. A. Van Schaick, 16 S. Front-st., Philadelphia; Foy & Earle, 85 S. Water-st., Chicago; Schultz & Bagley, 94 West Second-st., Cincinnati.

DENTISTRY! DENTISTRY!
A BEAUTIFUL SET OF TEETH FOR TEN DOLLARS
Dr. H. VIRGIL PORTER,
(late of New York city,)
DENTIST,
Would respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has located permanently
IN BLOODY RUN,
where he may be found at all times prepared to insert from ONE TOOTH to full sets of his BEAUTIFUL ARTIFICIAL TEETH, on new and improved atmospheric principles.
THE TRIUMPH OF MECHANICAL DENTISTRY,
RUBBER
FOR THE BASIS OF ARTIFICIAL TEETH.
This discovery which has met with such universal approval throughout this and other countries, has seemingly placed Artificial Teeth at the disposal of all who require them. Dr. PORTER is now inserting most beautiful and durable, at prices ranging from ten to eighteen dollars per set.
☞ Temporary sets inserted if desired.
☞ All operations warranted.
TEETH EXTRACTED, without pain, by the use of NITROUS OXIDE or LAUGHING GAS.
This is NO HUMBUG, but a positive fact.
Gas administered fresh every day.
As the Gas administered by Dr. Porter is prepared in accordance with the purifying method of Dr. Strong, of New Haven, Ct., and Prof. Siliman (late Professor of Chemistry in Yale College), he has no hesitation in asserting that it is attended with no danger whatever.
Persons desiring the services of a Dentist, would promote their own interest by calling upon Dr. Porter, as he is determined to spare no effort to please the most fastidious. Dr. Porter's mode of operating will at all times be of the mildest character, avoiding the infliction of the slightest unnecessary pain, and carefully adapted to the age, constitution, health and nervous condition of the patient.
☞ Special attention is invited to Dr. Porter's scientific method of preserving decayed and aching teeth. H. VIRGIL PORTER,

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND
J. W. BRADLEY'S
CELEBRATED PATENT
DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING)
SKIRT.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring Skirt.
A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards villingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.
They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered: preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.
The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT of the Fashionable World!
To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz. superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for
J. W. BRADLEY'S DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.
CAUTION.—To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that Skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—for none others are genuine. Also notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.
For sale in all stores where first class Skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,

GRAND CONCERTS IN AID OF THE MASONIC HALL AND ASYLUM FUND.—The object of these Concerts is to raise funds to build a Masonic Hall in the city of New York, commensurate with the wants of the fraternity, and to erect an Asylum for decayed Masons and the indigent and infirm widows of Masons and their orphans. A large fund has been collected for this purpose, but more is needed, which it is believed will be generously and promptly given by the charitable public, and those immediately interested in the welfare of the Order.
The Management take great pleasure in announcing that their Sixth and last Grand Musical Entertainment will take place at Jones' Wood, on TUESDAY, JULY 30th, commencing at 1 o'clock, P. M., and will be immediately followed by the Grand Distribution of Presents.
OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF MASONS,
OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
New York, January 10, 1867.
BRO. G. W. HOLMES—My Dear Sir—"Yours of the 9th instant has been received. In reply I can only state that any enterprise which may be honorably and conscientiously conducted, in aid of the Masonic Hall and Asylum Fund of the State of New York, will receive not only my unqualified approbation, but my zealous co-operation. That your enterprise will be conducted with fidelity to your promises I have no doubt, judging from the references which you have given. While I say this, I desire still to declare to you that any effort, no matter how sacred may be the end sought to be achieved, that leads to any violation of the laws of the State, should not be permitted. Let those laws be held in strict respect, a blessing will surely follow, and you will receive thanks of thousands. Thanking you for your kind remembrance of the widows and orphans of our craft, I am
Truly and fraternally yours,
ROBERT D. HOLMES, G. Master.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with consciencious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interst, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to, assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.
The DAILY WORLD affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.
